

VELUSE AGENCY STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURE (SOP)
DEPARTMENT: Sales & Initial Acquisition Strategy
SUBJECT: The "Zero to 5 Clients" Free Work Protocol & Network Monetization
PURPOSE: To systematically map the exact outbound outreach process for acquiring our first batch of high-ticket Med Spa clients without spending a single dollar on advertising. We will leverage existing networks, the ACA conversation framework, and the "Free Work / Case Study" pitch to rapidly generate undeniable proof of concept for our AI-infrastructure deployments.

PART 1: THE 10-STEP "ZERO TO 5 CLIENTS" PROTOCOL

To completely eliminate acquisition costs while validating a new service line (like a new AI booking agent for Med Spas), our consultants must execute this rigid 10-step warm outreach system.

Step 1: Get Your List You already have an audience, even if you do not realize it. You must pull all of your contacts from three primary buckets: your email account, your social media profiles (followers you can direct message), and the personal contacts in your phone 1, 2. By adding these together, you instantly generate a massive list of warm leads 2, 3.

Step 2: Pick A Platform Select the platform where you hold the highest volume of contacts, whether that is email, your phone, or a specific social media channel 2, 3. You will systematically hit all platforms eventually, but you start with your largest pool 3.

Step 3: Personalize Your Message Do not blast a generic, automated message 4. Take 30 seconds to review their profile and use something you know about them to initiate the reach-out, such as congratulating them on a new baby or a new job 2. This proves you are treating them as a human being, not just a number 4.

Step 4: Reach Out (The Rule of 100) You must commit to reaching out to 100 people from your list every single day 3, 4. If you have 3,000 contacts, this protocol gives you 30 solid days of outbound work 4.

Step 5: Warm Them Up (The ACA Framework) When a prospect replies, you do not immediately pitch them; you warm them up using the Acknowledge, Compliment, Ask (ACA) framework to organically steer the conversation toward business 5, 6. (Detailed in Part 2).

Step 6: Invite Their Friends You do not aggressively solicit the contact directly. Instead, you casually mention what you are doing and ask them if they know anyone who needs the specific result you deliver 6, 7. Because you are asking for a favor rather than asking them to buy, you remove all sales friction 8.

Step 7: Make Them The Easiest Offer in the World When they or their referral express interest, you make an offer they would be stupid to refuse: you offer to do the work completely for free 8, 9. You explain that you are taking on a handful of case studies at no cost, provided they agree to specific terms (using the service, giving feedback, and leaving a killer review) 8, 9.

Step 8: Start Back At The Top Once you exhaust your contacts on your primary platform, you move to the platform with your second-highest number of contacts, and then the third, repeating the daily volume until your list is saturated 10, 11. By the time you finish, mathematical probability dictates you will have secured your first 5 clients 10, 11.

Step 9: Start Charging The moment your free clients begin referring other Med Spas to you, you know your service is good enough to monetize 12, 13. You transition by changing "free" to "80% off for the next five people," then "60% off for the next five," gradually increasing your price until you hit full premium retail 12, 13.

Step 10: Keep Your List Warm You must continuously provide value to your remaining contact list via social media posts or emails 14, 15. This deposits ongoing goodwill, ensuring that when you probe the list later, they remain primed and responsive 14, 15.

PART 2: THE "A.C.A." CONVERSATION METHOD

When a contact replies to our personalized greeting, Veluse consultants must flawlessly execute the ACA (Acknowledge, Compliment, Ask) framework. This technique breaks the ice without sounding "icky" and allows us to transition a casual catch-up into a tactical business qualification 5.

- Acknowledge: Restate what they just told you in your own words to prove active listening 5, 16.
- Compliment: Praise them for the information they shared, ideally tying it to a positive character trait 5, 16.
- Ask: Ask a leading question that pivots the conversation closer to your core offer 17, 18.

The Exact Scripting Framework: Prospect: "I'm doing well, just managing my full-time accounting job and raising two kids." Veluse Consultant (Acknowledge): "Two kids... and you're an accountant..." 5, 16. Veluse Consultant (Compliment): "Wow! Supermom! So hardworking! Managing a full-time career and two kids..." 17, 18. Veluse Consultant (Ask): "...Do you even get time for yourself?" 17, 18.

(Note: For Veluse Agency targeting Med Spas, the Ask would pivot toward business capacity: "...With balancing two kids and running the clinic, do you even have time to manage your front desk staff?")

PART 3: THE "FREE WORK / CASE STUDY" PITCH

Once the prospect admits they are struggling with the exact problem our Med Spa AI infrastructure solves, we do not attempt to extract money from them. We deploy the "Free Work / Case Study" pitch. This script uses the "Ask for a Referral" psychological Trojan Horse. By asking if they know someone, we eliminate sales pressure, prompting the prospect to often volunteer themselves for the free service 8, 19.

The Exact Pitch Script: "...By the way, do you know anybody who is describe their specific Med Spa struggle looking to dream outcome in time delay? I'm taking on five case studies for free, because that's all I can handle. I just want to get some testimonials for my service. I help them dream outcome without effort and sacrifice. It works. I even guarantee people get dream outcome or I work with them until they do. I just had a girl named XXX work with me to get dream outcome even though she describe the exact same struggle your contact has. I also had another guy who dream outcome and it was his first time. I'd just like more testimonials to show it works across different scenarios. Does anyone you like come to mind?" 7, 20.

(Pause and wait for their response) 7, 20.

If they say no: "Haha, well... does anyone you hate come to mind?" 7, 20. (This injects humor and breaks any residual awkwardness) 7, 20.

The Condition of Free: If they (or their referral) agree to take the free slot, you must set rigid expectations. "Since I'm only taking on five people, I can give you all the attention you need to get brag-worthy results. And I'll give it all for free so long as you promise to: 1) Use it, 2)

Give me feedback, and 3) Leave a killer review if you think it deserves one. Does that sound fair?" 8, 9.

By executing this exact sequence, Veluse Agency will build an impenetrable portfolio of Med Spa case studies, allowing us to command absolute premium pricing for all future clients 13, 21.
